

Perception Index

Government College for Women (GCW), Sonipat, started in the year 2018 aims to provide quality education, focusing on academic excellence, holistic development, and social responsibility, fostering a positive learning environment for empowering women in the region. It's reputation is growing since it's establishment.

Perception Index

Positive Student Feedback: Students generally report high satisfaction with teaching quality, relevant curriculum, and supportive faculty.

Improved Infrastructure: The move to a new, spacious building (opened Oct 2022) enhances campus facilities, contributing to a better perception of the learning environment.

Focus on Holistic Growth: Beyond academics the college emphasizes extracurriculars and social responsibility, creating a nurturing atmosphere.

Growing Institution: Established in 2018, GCW Sonipat is rapidly developing, attracting more students and building a strong reputation.